FRISCO POLICE ARREST STUDENT FOR THREAT TO SCHOOL

May 7th, 2009 (Frisco TX.)

The Frisco Police Department arrested Michael Andrew Kuzio (W/M, 18YOA) on May 6th, 2009, for Exhibition of a Firearm. Kuzio is a student at Centennial High School in Frisco. Information was obtained by the police department that Kuzio had made threats to "do a school shooting". During the course of the investigation detectives determined that Kuzio did make the threat and that criminal charges were appropriate. The threat was made via an online social networking site. Kuzio did not take a firearm to school, but as a part of the statute (Section 37.125 of the Texas Education Code), the threat to do so is an offense. The offense is a third degree felony punishable by two to ten years imprisonment and a fine not to exceed $10,000.00. Bond for Kuzio was set at $20,000.00.
